"Success is not final, failure is not fatal: it is the courage to continue that counts."

April 19, 2018

Dear St. Stan's Family:

This week our students experienced a good deal of success by working diligently and persevering through our standardized tests. I am immensely proud of all of them! We are all taking a deep breath now as we run to the finish line of this year.

Next Wednesday, April 25th we will start the day with our April Student of the Month breakfast. From 6:00pm to 7:30pm we will have our Literacy Night Program that was previously cancelled due to weather (if you have not RVSP'd please do so by Monday, April 23rd). Additionally, at the same time we will open our doors for an open house for potential new students/families. I encourage you to invite friends and families to this open house to get a sense of the amazing education our children are receiving, the safe, family oriented environment. Your good word of mouth is the best advertisement we could have.

I also want to remind you tickets for Mother and Father of the Year being held on May 4th, honoring Mrs. Amy Huff and Mr. Patrick Williams are still available; this is such a wonderful event I hope to see many of you there! Finally, our second graders are approaching their big day, which is May 5th, on this day they will enter into an even more loving relationship with Jesus Christ through receiving the Holy Eucharist for the first time. Please keep these young people in your prayers.

Finally, please see the letter enclosed in this white envelope, in reference to new drop off procedures. It was sent out on Wednesday, as well, via email and with your child. These procedures will go into effect on Monday, April 23, 2018.

In His Peace,

Elena Malinconico
