Dear Parents,

We are in the midst of Catholic Schools Week and while it has been a whirlwind of activity, students and faculty alike are enjoying all the events. Today we are holding our second Open House and we look forward to many of you visiting our school as well as friends and neighbors who may be interested in having their children register. In that vein, let me remind you to re-register your children before March 31st to avoid the $100.00 late fee. Also, a reminder that the transportation and textbook slips need to be returned by the end of February (Please see enclosed in the white envelopes going home with the children today re-registration, transportation & textbook forms).

Our ambassadors have been the source of pride here at St. Stan’s serving as tour guides and greeters for Open Houses and will continue to do so over the course of the year. I have attached a listing of these students who represent the finest in St. Stan’s School. I have heard numerous compliments from parents, guests and teachers as to the way these students conduct themselves and I would like to acknowledge them and let them know how proud we all are of their performance.

Last evening many of you were able to attend our HSA meeting and hear Dr. Joseph Conroy speak on the various difficulties some of our children experience and some ways to help these students. Those who were here found him extremely helpful. Dr. Conroy will hold a workshop for our teachers next Wednesday, February 5th to instruct them in ways to accommodate many of these children.

Tomorrow we honor our wonderfully talented faculty and the students will have a special secret way of doing so. I wish to thank these women for their unending time and service to our school and for the nurture, care, and love that they show our children each day. They are certainly a very unique group of educators and I am very proud of all of them!

We have two of our teachers who will be honored for their service to our school. Mrs. Debbie Kubeck has been chosen as Teacher of the Year by the Knights of Columbus and a mass and breakfast will be held in her honor on Sunday, February 9th. I invite all of you to attend the 9:00AM Mass that day to celebrate with her and those of you who wish to attend the Knights of Columbus breakfast which will follow, please see the form in today’s white envelope for details about purchasing tickets. Ms. Danielle Fardin has been chosen by St Helena’s Parish in Edison as the National Catholic Educational Association’s Distinguished Graduate. She will be honored at the 5:00PM Mass at St. Helena’s this Saturday. Congratulations to these two fine educators!

Please remember that school will be closed from February 10th through February 17th. Enjoy your vacation.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Patricia Graham
