Dear St. Stan's Families:

How appropriate that our virtue next week deals with knowledge; as our students move forward in life the knowledge that they gain from family, Church and school will help them solve the world's problems and help make it a better place. It is also significant because I have so much information about upcoming events to share with you this week.

1. Please open your hearts to donate a toy from the list provided so that we can make a donation to the Robert Wood Johnson's pediatric unit this holiday season. It is our goal to prepare some sense of comfort to their littlest patients this holiday season. If you have any questions please contact Mrs. Grover at LGrover@sskschool.org.
2. I am excited to announce that on December 18, 2015, our third grade students will be presenting a Living Wax museum of historical figures. Ms. Eber and her students are diligently preparing to create an exciting "living" history for our students. Parents are welcome to attend. The presentation will be from 12:30- 1:30 on the 18th.
3. Remember our Christmas break has been extended by one day and we will be returning to school on January 5, 2016.
4. Our Jesse Tree Ceremony will be held next Wednesday, December 9th during morning exercises, please feel free to join us for this very special event.
5. Grades Pre K through four will be participating in our Santa Shoppe next Wednesday December 9th. Information was sent home last week.
6. In a couple of weeks we will be piloting our We Share program. There will be a tab under Our School on our website. This will allow you to pay by credit card for a variety of things including lunch and after care.
7. December 16, 2015 will be our Christmas performance at 7:00 pm., I look forward to seeing you there.

In His Peace,

Elena Malinconico, Principal
