The CDC has again changed the guidelines for quarantine/isolation with regards to COVID. Next week, I will provide you with the new guidelines that will be in place here at St. Stanislaus Kostka School. I rely heavily on the expertise of the Middlesex County BOH, the Diocese of Metuchen, and our school-specific needs in order to make the best informed and logical decisions for the safety of our students, staff, and families. Until then, if you have any questions please reach out to the office.

Finally, grades 5-8 will be taking midterm exams next week. Please be make sure that your child has breakfast and arrives to school on time. The students have been well-prepared by their teachers, and conscientiously reviewing for the past couple of weeks. We wish all of our students good luck on their exams!

Thank you for all that you do. You are always in my prayers.

Warmest regards,

Lori Hodder
