Learn to do good; Seek justice, Reprove the ruthless, Defend the orphan, Plead for the widow. – Isaiah 1:17

Dear Parents and Guardians:

It has been a short school week but one packed with much excitement, changes and as always learning. I was privileged to host my first Students of the Month breakfast. These ten students were bright, enthusiastic and a pleasure to speak with and it was a delight to share a meal with them! Our middle school students began the St. Peter's program today and are eagerly anticipating their field trip next week.

We began our new dismissal procedures with great success and increased safety for our students. Thank you for your cooperation as we iron out the kinks that accompany any new program. Our Partesi Music program has grown tremendously this year. We went from approximately nine students taking lessons last year to over thirty students this year. The response was so large we will actually be holding lessons on Mondays and Thursdays. The office sent home a confirmation of student lesson times yesterday.

As a school, during opening exercises each morning we continue to discuss those virtues which are the foundation of our faith. This week, we focused on the virtue of prudence and using prudence to make wise, thoughtful and Christian decisions in school and throughout our daily lives. Today, we also practiced an internal lockdown as required by law and students followed instructions that ultimately would lead to their safety. Finally, we are eagerly anticipating Coach Bingo tomorrow evening. I am deeply thankful to those parents who work so very hard to make this event the amazing success it is. Not only is it a fabulous evening to share with friends and family but the funds raised help our students receive the top notch education that is provided at St. Stan's School.

So as you can see although it was a short week, there is no such thing as a dull week here at St. Stan's. Thank you for your ongoing support of our school and students.

In His Peace,

Mrs. Elena Malinconico
